

As your new school year begins, it's important to understand your health care benefits and how they work. Your Anthem Student Advantage plan will help guide you through that process with information about who is eligible, what is covered, how much it costs, and the best ways to access care.

What you need to know about Anthem Student Advantage

Who is eligible?

All full-time graduate students taking 9 or more credit hours and full-time undergraduate students taking 12 or more credit hours; and CONHP-College of Nursing & Healthcare Professions (part-time and full-time) are automatically enrolled in this insurance plan at registration, unless proof of comparable coverage is furnished. New students beginning full-time enrollment during the summer who are taking 6 or more credit hours per summer term are eligible to enroll in this insurance plan.

Eligible students who do enroll may also insure their Dependents. Eligible Dependents are the student's legal spouse and dependent children under 26 years of age.

The student (Named Insured, as defined in the Certificate) must actively attend classes for at least the first 31 days after the date for which coverage is purchased. Home study, correspondence, and online courses do not fulfill the eligibility requirements that the student actively attend classes. The Company maintain its right to investigate eligibility or student status and attendance records to verify that the Policy eligibility requirements have been met. If and whenever the Company discovers that the Policy eligibility requirements have not been met, its only obligation is refund of premium.

What you need to know continued

The eligibility date for Dependents of the Name Insured shall be determined in accordance with the following:

1. If a named Insured has Dependents on the date he or she is eligible for insurance.
2. If a Named Insured acquires a Dependent after the Effective Date, such Dependent becomes eligible:
 - a. On the date the Named Insured acquires a legal spouse.
 - b. On the date the Named Insured acquires a dependent child who is within the limits of a dependent child set forth in the Definitions section of the Certificate.

Dependent eligibility expires concurrently with that of the Named Insured. To waive online, visit valpo.myahpcare.com/waiver.

Coverage is available for dependents too

If you are covered by Anthem Student Advantage through Valparaiso University, you may enroll your lawful spouse, domestic partner or dependent children under the age of 26. Here is how it works:
