

As your new school year begins, it's important to understand your health care benefits and how they work. Your Anthem Student Advantage plan will help guide you through that process with information about who is eligible, what is covered, how much it costs, and the best ways to access care.

What you need to know about Anthem Student Advantage

Who is eligible?

- › All full-time domestic undergraduate students taking at least 12 or more credit hours are automatically enrolled in this insurance plan, unless proof of comparable coverage is provided.
- › All international students are required to enroll in this insurance plan, unless proof of comparable coverage is provided.
- › Undergraduate taking 6-11 credit hours
- › Graduate students taking six or more credit hours who are enrolled in an organized course of study or degree program given at an academic department of the University
- › Students taking less than six credit hours, but who are enrolled in an organized course of study or degree program given by an academic department of the University, or students who are fulfilling a non-coursework requirement of that program (thesis, dissertation etc.).

International students with F-1 and J-1 Visas are required to have current health insurance coverage with a U.S. claims address.

The following student groups are also eligible to enroll on a voluntary basis:

Dependents are no longer eligible to enroll in this coverage.
