

As your new school year begins, it's important to understand your health care benefits and how they work. Your Anthem Student Advantage plan will help guide you through that process with information about who is eligible, what is covered, how much it costs, and the best ways to access care.

What you need to know about Anthem Student Advantage

Who is eligible?

You will be required to participate in this plan on a hard waiver basis if:

- You are a full-time undergraduate student carrying 12 or more credits
- You are a full-time graduate students carrying 9 or more credits
- You are an enrolled full-time law student

The following student groups may participate on a voluntary basis:

- Part-time graduate, undergraduate and law students registered for 6 or more credit hours

Coverage is available for dependents, too.

If you're covered by Anthem Student Advantage through Pace University, you may enroll your lawful spouse, domestic partner or dependent children under the age of 26.

Here is how it works:

- Eligible students may also insure their Dependents.
- Eligible Dependents are the student's spouse or Domestic Partner and dependent children under 26 years of age.
- See the "Who is Covered" section of the Certificate of Coverage for the specific requirements needed to meet Domestic Partner eligibility.
